

2021 Annual Show and Sale

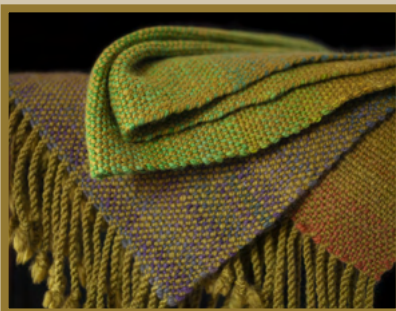

We are delighted to announce the Seattle Weavers' Guild Sale will be returning in 2021! Rest assured, during the COVID hiatus we have been busy weaving in order to provide you with an expanded selection of one-of-a-kind hand-crafted items including apparel, accessories, household décor, baskets, jewelry, holiday gifts, and handspun & hand-dyed yarn. Meet the artists, see them in action and, above all, once again experience the touch, feel and utter loveliness of handwovens. This is a show you won't want to miss!
